

PRESCRIPTION FOR KIDNEYS

Do not let the kidneys ever compound for kidney and bladder complaints.

Too much emphasis cannot be laid on the kidneys and bladder. Weak or inactive kidneys lead to most serious and consequential consequences, such as chronic rheumatism, diabetes or Bright's disease. For this reason, such symptoms as pain in the back, rheumatic pains in the joints, frequent or highly-colored urination, soreness in the groin or hip, dizziness, puffiness under the eyes, etc., should attract attention to without delay. The following prescription is known to be highly indorsed by high medical authority: "One-half ounce of extract Buchu, six ounces of pure gin." These ingredients can be bought separately and mixed at home, or any good druggist can put them up. For best results, take in doses of one to two teaspoonsful three times a day, after meals, "take in time" this treatment is the best obtainable.

DEMOCRATS ARE PLEASED WITH LATER RETURNS

duced majority of Judge Mann was not due to Democratic disaffection.

Everybody pleased. The Democrats are satisfied, said Secretary Brennan when he read that Secretary Hart, of the Republican State Committee, had said he was satisfied with the outcome. "I am perfectly pleased myself," only hope Mr. Hart is as well satisfied as I. The difference in our feelings must be one of degree."

Among the members-elect of the House who were in the city yesterday were Dr. H. U. Stephenson, of Tazewell, and Dr. P. Stearnes, of Newport News.

Upon the principle, perhaps, that the Legislature needs prayers, the Democrats of Bristol and Washington county have elected Rev. E. C. Buck as one of the members of the House of Delegates. Rev. Mr. Buck pulled through by the narrow majority of thirty votes.

VIII CANVASS VOTES

For the purpose of canvassing the vote of the election, the Board of State Canvassers will meet at the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth on the fourth Monday in this month. That body will examine and make statements of the total number of votes received in the State for Superintendent of Public Instruction, Commissioner of Agriculture and Immigration, and members of the Senate and House of Delegates. The Legislature canvasses the votes for Governor and the other State officers.

County and city commissioners of election will meet all over the State today to canvass the returns as made by the judges of election. These returns will be forwarded at once to the Secretary of the Commonwealth.

The returns for Richmond, Henrico county and perhaps Chesterfield county, will probably be sent in today. The Board of State Canvassers is composed of the Governor, the Secretary of the Commonwealth, the Auditor of Public Accounts, the State Treasurer, the Attorney-General, or any three of these.

The Richmond city commissioners of election will meet this morning at 10 o'clock in the Hustings Court room. This board is composed of R. A. Cavado, J. Caskey, Cabell, Andrew Krouse, W. D. Selden and J. Carey.

Must File Expense Accounts. Attention is called to the fact that there remains one more duty required by law of all candidates, where successful or not, for any office in the present election. This is the filing of their expense accounts within thirty days of the election.

Edwin P. Cox, a member-elect of the House of Delegates, attended to this matter yesterday. His statement shows that he expended nothing to secure his election.

All candidates for municipal offices in this city must file their accounts with the clerk of the Hustings Court. Candidates for the House of Delegates, with all State officers, have two accounts to file—one with the Secretary of the Commonwealth and the other with the clerk of their respective county or city courts. Clerk Walter Christian, of the Richmond Hustings Court, has printed forms, with blanks attached, in its office for the use of all candidates living in Richmond.

COMPLEXION OF HOUSE

There Will Be Eighty-Six Democrats and Fourteen Republicans. Eighty-six Democrats and fourteen Republicans will be the political complexion of the next House of Delegates. The House will be made up of eighty-six Democrats, thirteen Republicans and one Independent. The Republicans gain a member, but the opposition to the Democrats gains nothing.

THE OPERA SEASON IN NEW YORK CITY

Why Out-of-Town Music-Lovers Should Stop at the Hotel St. Regis.

With two great opera houses (the Metropolitan at Broadway and Fortieth Street and the Manhattan at Thirty-fourth Street and Eighth Avenue), both playing full seasons and presenting the world's masterpieces in grand style and with the greatest soloists, rivaling one another in parallel roles, the potent attractions of New York for the out-of-town music-lover will be recognized and frankly admitted. New York does her share in supporting these two great enterprises, and does it impartially, but visiting musicians and music-lovers must be recognized as the "balance of power," and it is their patronage that makes these enterprises continuously profitable. These visitors invariably desire a quiet, refined, restful hotel, home-like in its character, unobjectionable to an artistic spirit in its every feature. Such they will find in the Hotel St. Regis, located at the corner of Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fifth Street, recognized and acknowledged as "America's finest," not alone in its design and furnishings, but also in respect to its service and its refined atmosphere. The cuisine of the St. Regis is maintained at the very highest standard, being unsurpassed by any of the famous restaurants of London or Paris, while the charges are no higher than those of other first-class hotels. Room rates as well as reasonable—$3 and $4 a day for a large luxuriously furnished single room; $5 for a double room with private bath (or $8 for two people); $12 a day and up for a splendid suite consisting of parlor, bedroom and private bath.
